Subject: RE: ministerial engagement

Think we are good. This is what we have in the report on ministerial engagement so far. Let us know if any concerns.

- The Minister of Public Safety engaged the Premier of Ontario on February 9, 2022. The Minister has also been in regular contact with the Mayor of Ottawa and the Mayor of Windsor, including through the tripartite discussions. His staff have also engaged with both Mayor's offices.
- The Minister of Public Safety engaged with the Premier of Alberta on February 2 and 9, 2022, and on a call with the Premier and the Acting Minister of Justice and Solicitor General of Alberta on February 7, 2022. The Minister also engaged the Acting Minister of Justice and Solicitor General of Alberta on February 1, 5, and 9, 2022.
- The Minister of Public Safety also spoke with Manitoba's Minister of Justice and Attorney General on the border crossing at Emerson. The Minister of Public Safety offered additional assistance, and noted the Emergencies Act would make it easier to provide additional assets and resources rapidly to law enforcement to end current blockades, as well as to prevent future blockades.

- The Minister of Transport spoke with Ontario's Minister of Transportation on February 9, 2022 concerning the blockades at border crossings. The Minister also spoke with the Mayor of Windsor on February 11, 2022 concerning the Ambassador Bridge.
- The Minister of Transport spoke with Alberta's Minister of Transportation on February 5 and 9, 2022 concerning the blockade at the Coutts port of entry.
- The Minister of Transport spoke with Manitoba's Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure on February 12, 2022 concerning the Emerson port of entry.
- The Minister of Transport spoke with British Columbia's Minister of Transportation and Infrastructure on February 14, 2022 about blockades at border crossings. The Ministers discussed how the Emergencies Act can assist law enforcement.
- The Minister of Transport also spoke with Nov Scotia's Minister of Public Works on February 15, 2022 and provided an overview of the emergency measures being taken under the Emergencies Act.
